

COAL PRICES REDUCED BY RETAIL MEN

Anthracite Takes Drops of $6 a Ton with Promise of Further Reduction After Two Weeks of Mining.

OPERATORS FORCED CUT.

No Excuse for Panic Prices, as There Is Plenty Coal and Dealers Are Supplied at Same Rate as Formerly.

Anthracite, household sizes.....	$15.00
Bituminous.....	6.50
Pea.....	9.00
Buckwheat No. 1....	6.50
Buckwheat No. 2....	5.50

The above is the schedule of prices for coal adopted at this afternoon's meeting of the Retail Coal Dealers' Association of Manhattan and the Bronx held in Vienna Hall, Fifty-eighth street and Lexington avenue.

The meeting was stormy, many of the smaller dealers insisting that no cut should be made. They wanted to milk the public as long as they could. The larger dealers held that it was necessary at this time to make some concessions, as the public was not in a mood to be trifled with after all they have gone through with in connection with the strike.

After the meeting was over President J. Samuel Smoot said:
"The cut is a concession to the sub-lie at the expense of the dealers."
"It will be two weeks before there will be any new coal coming into New York, but the dealers have decided that they would be accused of arbitrarily holding up the price, and so to prevent this they have made the cut to take effect on Monday. After two weeks it will be possible to make another cut."

The coal men had a taste of their own medicine. They tried to meet in a big assembly room, but as there was no heat turned on they were obliged to crowd into one of the smaller rooms.
The determined efforts of the members of the Retail Coal Dealers of Manhattan and the Bronx to keep up the price of coal at the figures which they obtained before the breaking of the strike has caused great bitterness in the public mind, and the wholesale dealers even are crying out against the injustice.

This is the schedule that the retailers were running until to-day: Hard coal, domestic sizes..... $21
Pea..... 10
Buckwheat, Nos. 1, 2 and 3, respectively..... $3, $7 and 6 Soft coal..... 5

That plenty of coal is obtainable by the retailers at reduced prices was shown yesterday in Brooklyn, where the Association does not hold sway. The retail price for hard coal was $15 a ton and that of soft coal was proportionately low. It is just as easy for the New York retailers to get coal at the same price as do the Brooklyn dealers, but through their association they are trying to milk the public as long as they can.

Plenty of Coal Coming.
A representative of the firm of Teal, Peacock & Kerr, of No. 1 Broadway, said to-day:

"There is any quantity of coal coming into the city in hard lots and there is no excuse for the continued high prices. The Brooklyn men have cut it and there is no reason why the New York men should not do the same."

Curtis and Blaisdell, one of the biggest firms in the city, said that the retail men were all getting their coal today at the reduced rates. Among the firms which were bringing coal into the city in large quantities to-day were Stickney, Cuyinham & Co., the American Coal Company and Berwynd & White.

OPERATORS MAY MAKE FIRST CONCESSION.

(Special to The Evening World.) WILKESBARRE, Oct. 17.—A representative of The Evening World has informed late this afternoon that the coal operators may submit an offer of a 10 per cent. increase in pay to their employees on or before Monday, the day set for the miners' convention.

Louis Hammerling, President Mitchell's trustee, personal representative, is either in Philadelphia or Washington.
He left here immediately after the conference of the Miners' Executive Board's last night.

Mr. Hammerling before his departure said he had made the statement that an offer of 10 per cent. from the operators was very probable, and that the increase had been discussed in his presence at the White House.

(Special to The Evening World.)
MORRIS PARK RACE TRACK, Oct.
17.—Racegoers gasped with surprise when they reached Westchester this afternoon. Knowing how heavy the showers of rain were in the city this morning they expected to find a track deep in mud. In fact they were going through records on the track looking for mud horses. Judge the surprise of the crowd therefore to find the track dry and as dusty as it was yesterday.
No rain had fallen during the morning.
The surprise was an agreeable one for the crowd wanted to see a good track for the meeting between Aceful and Grey Friar in the Champions Stakes to-morrow. Much will depend on Aceful's race. If he performs well he will be sent to England to undergo a special preparation for the Derby.
The weather was very cold and raw.
It was the most disagreeable day of the year and the heaviest of winter clothes were barely comfortable. There was only one stake, the Williamsbridge for three-year-olds. This was a selling stake at a mile and a furlong.
Attendance was slim.

lowed by Yelp and Templeton in close order. They ran this way to the stretch, where Draughtsman died away and Yelp went to the front with Templeton. In a hard drive through the last sixteenth Yelp won by a neck. Templeton was four lengths in front of Silver Aurville was quickest to get going, but was soon joined by Astorite and Sheriff Bell. These three made the running around the turn a couple of lengths in front of Short Hose, Incubator and Gold Money were close behind. When they swung into the stretch Aurville was done. Short Hose then moved up and looked over the finish line a furlong from home, but at this point Mackey Dwyer overtook and beat him. He took the lead, won by three-quarters of a length from Short Hose, who beat Incubator a length and a half.

MURDERER TURNER, HIS VICTIMS AND THE CROWD IN FRONT OF THE SCENE OF THE TRAGEDY.

WILLIAM C. TURNER.

CROWD BEFORE THE BROAD EXCHANGE BUILDING.

WILLIAM J. MALLARD.

ALBERT HAMILTON.

DOUBLE MURDERER AND SUICIDE HAD GUN FOR OTHERS.

Second Pistol Found on William C. Turner, Who Put His Two Former Business Associates to Death and Then Turned His Magazine Revolver Upon Himself.

Went to Borough President Cantor's Office with the Evident Intention of Also Putting to Death Mr. Cantor and His Law Partner, Former Assistant District-Attorney John F.
McIntyre.

One of His Victims Was Albert Hamilton, a Millionaire Glass Manufacturer of Pittsburg, and the Other Was William J. Mallard, a Rich Business Man Living Off Central Park.

PERSONS IN THE TRAGEDY.

WILLIAM C. TURNER, of Mount Vernon, a cousin of Gov. Odell, who killed himself after killing two other men. He was a brother-in-law of "Dan" Stuart, the famous Texan sport and "gun fighter," and was formerly a Texan and a dead shot.

ALBERT HAMILTON, of Pittsburg, Pa., a millionaire glass manufacturer, who bought out the business of his slayer. Prominent with his wife in the social circles of Pittsburg, where he was highly esteemed.

WILLIAM J. MALLARD, of No. 3 West One Hundred and First street, right off Central Park, who was a part purchaser of Turner's business, leaves a widow and two children; was formerly a resident of Atlanta, Ga., where he was very popular.

William C. Turner, the murderer, evidently came to New York to-day with the avowed intention of not only killing Mr.
Mallard and Mr. Hamilton, but Borough President Cantor and former Assistant District-Attorney McIntyre, thus completing four murders in the Wall street section that would be remembered in the criminal history of New York for all time.

The enmity he felt for his former partners was based upon the belief that they were persecuting him.

His animus against Mr. McIntyre was due to the fact that the lawyer was energetic in forcing him to a settlement.

Against Mr. Cantor Turner held a grudge because the Borough President refused to lend political support to a movement to have Turner sent to the Assembly from Westchester County.

William C. Turner, of Mount Vernon, a cousin of Gov. Odell and brother-in-law of Dan Stuart, the Texas sporting man, shot and killed William J.
Mallard, of No. 3 West One Hundred and First street, and Albert Hamilton, of Pittsburg, and then committed suicide to-day in the law offices of Borough President Cantor and former Assistant District Attorney John F. McIntyre, in the Broad Exchange Building.

The shooting was done in the presence of J. J. Adams, a partner of Mr. Cantor and Mr. McIntyre; Lawyer Leventritt, who was representing Turner, and Maurice Goodman, who is associated with the firm of Cantor, McIntyre & Adams.

Turner killed the two men and himself because they accused him of stealing money from the Climax Bottling and Manufacturing Company, a concern at No. 37 Murray street, of which Turner was formerly president and treasurer.

It is believed that Turner intended to kill both President Cantor and John F. McIntyre, but they happened to be absent from the office.

The Climax Bottling and Manufacturing Company is located at No.
27 Murray street. Turner was President and Treasurer up to last April, when he was succeeded by Albert Hamilton, who was a Pittsburg millionaire. Mallard was Secretary of the concern.

An examination of the books, according to Mallard and Hamilton, showed that Turner was $5,100 short in his accounts with the firm. John F.
McIntyre was engaged by Mallard and Hamilton to force Turner to make a settlement.

The matter dragged along all summer. Recently Mr. McIntyre had been pressing Turner, and yesterday the accused man made a proposition to settle on a basis of $2,700. This proposition was agreed to, and an engagement was made to settle up this morning in the law office of Cantor, McIntyre & Adams.

Turner insisted that Mr. McIntyre should be present at the settlement.

YANKEE JOCKEY WINS $295,000.

Danny Maher Piloted His One Hundredth Winner Home in Sensational Finish at New-can jockey, completed his century of winning mounts for the present season with a sensational win of the Middle-park Plate by a head at Newmarket this afternoon. Although only second on the list of winning jockeys, Maher has won far more stake money than any of the others. His hundred winners today have netted the remarkable total of upwards of $225,000.
